Re: Robkiem Brown, et al. v. Police Officer Adekundle Longe, 19 Civ. 3375 (LJL)

Your Honor:

I am an Assistant Corporation Counsel in the Office of the Hon. Sylvia O. Hinds-Radix, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, representing defendant Police Officer Adekundle Longe in the above-referenced matter. With plaintiff Bouchet's consent, I write to respectfully request that the Court adjourn the status conference that was recently rescheduled to October 20, 2023 at 4:00 p.m.

Yesterday, on September 6, 2023, I called plaintiff Brown at the telephone number listed on the docket sheet. Nobody answered, and there was no option to leave a voicemail message. Further, on September 6, 2023, I sent the Court's September 5, 2023 Order to both plaintiffs by e-mail. In a reply e-mail, plaintiff Bouchet consented to defendant's adjournment request. As of this writing, I have not received a reply e-mail or return phone call from plaintiff Brown.

An additional adjournment of the October 20, 2023 status conference is necessary because I will be out of state October 19–22, 2023, for a previously scheduled vacation. Accordingly, defendant respectfully requests that the Court adjourn the status conference until a date and time during the week of October 23–27, 2023, that is convenient for the Court.¹

¹ On October 27, 2023, at 3:00 p.m., defense counsel has a previously scheduled status conference in the Eastern District of New York before the Honorable Lee G. Dunst, in the matter of Cagan v. Rittenhouse, et al., 22-CV-0260 (EK) (LGD). Aside from that conference, defense counsel is currently available at any other time during the week of October 23–27, 2023.

Defendant thanks the Court for its consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
